Without knowledge of the artist's name and reputation, critical opinion or market value, you must choose with your heart. It is the most trustworthy judge.

This approach is in opposition to virtually every known method of selling art. There is nothing and no one to persuade you—except you!

Discover what you love first, ask questions later. Art chosen this way will bring you the most joy and satisfaction.
