Twenty-one paintings all under $21,000

We reject the notion that important art must be expensive! All of the twenty-one paintings presented here are priced below $21,000, yet they share the walls of our gallery with some of our most valuable works and would be worthy of any serious collection. In order to give insight into the value of each painting, we have provided an approximate number of museums and institutions that include or have included the artist in their permanent collections, along with the artist's auction record.*

We strive to offer competitive values and build lasting relationships. We hope that these paintings spark your interest and we invite you to call us with any questions, or to visit us to see just how impressive they are in person.
